

Winter Newsletter

The Garden Suite
at
Fiddler Hall Barn

Go on .. spoil yourselves:

Valentines Day
14th February
Mother's Day
18th March
Half Term or Relax before
Easter

Special Offer for Winter available until Easter

Complimentary Traditional Afternoon Tea served between 3pm and 5pm on day of arrival or day of your choice for longer stays—please inform when booking

The Gardens in South Lakeland are always good to visit:

- Summerdale has open days on Sundays 19th, 26th Feb and 1st, 8th April
- Swarthmoor crocus field (looks like a bluebell field but of crocus!) is open from March 19th for a couple of weeks
- Holehird (pictured) is always open - Lakeland Horticultural Society and ... Doras Field, Rydal Hall, Stagshaw Gardens and Holker Hall (Daffodil Day) are all open for the NGS on April 1st

There is a feast of fine dining opportunities close by where you can really spoil yourselves

How about:

- L'enclume in Cartmel
- Linthwaite House near Bowness
- Gilpin Lodge towards Windermere
- Holbeck Ghyll on the Ambleside Road
- Lakeside on the shores of Lake Windermere (pictured)

Or one of the many others

- Lakeland Sinfonia is performing on 17th March
 - Brantwood Concerts are on 11th February
 - Northern Sinfonia performs on 11th March
 - There is the Music Festival in Ulverston from 25th – 31st March
 - Moscow Ballet performs on 15th March
 - Chinese State Circus is in Barrow on 15th/16th March
- If music and entertainment is your bag, check out The Coronation Hall in Ulverston, the Brewery in Kendal and The Kendal Parish Church

015395 30493

07850248036

enquiries@garden-suite.co.uk

www.garden-suite.co.uk

Lambing gets underway at Fiddler Hall towards the end of March—spectators always welcome

Even when it is wet and windy, walking in the South Lakes is always good!!

How about Gummings
How pictured here?

